

Std-II

Lesson-14 (Festival)

Answer these questions:-

Que1:- Why is holi called the festival of colours?

Ans- Holi is called the festival of colours because people play with different types of colours.

Que2:- When are harvest festivals held? Name any two of them.

Ans- Harvest festivals are held when the crops are ripe and ready to be cut. Onam and Pongal are two harvest festivals.

Que3:- Name the festivals of lights.

Ans- Diwali is known as the festival of light.

Que4:- After which month is Id-ul-fitr celebrated?

Ans-Id-ul-fitr is celebrated after the month of Ramazan.

Que5:- Name some important festivals celebrated in India are.

Christmas.

Dussehra.

Holi.

Diwali.

Eid.

Ans- Some important festivals celebrated in India are:-

Holi, Diwali, Christmas, Dussehra, Eid .

Fill in the blanks:-

- 1. Holi is the festival of colours.
- 2. Diwali is celebrated with diyas.
- 3. Id-ul-fitr is celebrated after a month of fasting.
- 4. Christmas celebrated Jesus Christ's birthday.
- 5. Food from a langar is eaten on Guruparvas.

6. Harvest festival is held when crops are cut.

Exercises

Que1:- Answer the following:

A. Name two festivals that celebrate someone's birthday.

Ans:- 1. _____. 2. _____.

B. What do people play with on Holi?

Ans. _____.

C. Name two festivals in which people give gifts.

Ans:- 1. _____. 2. _____.

D. Name the festival of lights.

Ans:- _____.

Que2:- Write True or False-

1. Holi is celebrated in spring. _____

2. People set off fireworks on Diwali. _____

3. People fast on Id-ul-fitr. _____

4. Christmas is celebrated on a fixed date every year. _____

5. Guruparvas are harvest festivals. _____